SHOCKS GALORE IN THE OPEN

It was a day of surprises in the European Open Teams Championship as an exceptional number of fancied teams were eliminated and will have to seek a place in the knock out stages via the Swiss repechage. The big names to fall include a host of World Champions, including the likes of Meckstroth & Rodwell, Perron & Lebel, Fischer, Schiffko, Townsend, Lesniewski, Pszczola, Chemla, & Mari. Add to them such stars as Helness, Forrester, Lindkvist, Fredin, Sadek, Ahmadi, Cronier and so on and you will readily understand our headline.

The Women's and Senior events still have two days to go before the qualification process is complete.

The Case of the Missing Spades

Now you see them, now you don't! The more observant among you may have noticed that some of the diagrams were minus the symbol for spades, instead having a double dose of hearts. The final proofs we checked were immaculate so what could have gone wrong? After a detailed investigation, we were forced to fall back on the classic 'When you have eliminated the impossible, whatever remains, however improbable, must be the truth.' (Sherlock Holmes - The Sign of Four.) It was a simple fingerfehler. The good news is that the Internet version has now been corrected.

Francis Wolf, Yves Aubry, Maurice Panis & Jean-Claude Thuiller, proud to present France's bid to host the 2008 European Championships.

The Team Events

OPEN TEAMS

Today we will play the Swiss A with 44 teams of which 27 qualify for the K.O. 32. The other 39 teams play the Swiss B of which the five highest teams qualify for the K.O. 32 and get the ranks 28 to 32. For the pairing in the first round we use the ranking based on the carry-overs given and choose randomly within the groups with the same VP's. In both Swisses there are 6 rounds of 8 boards, with starting times 10.30; 12.00; 14.15; 15.45; 17.15 and 18.45.

There will be a captains meeting in Los Espejos to decide the first matches in the K.O. as soon as possible after finishing play at 20.00.

The matches will be decided by choice. Team 1 in Swiss A chooses a team ranked 9 to 32, then team 2 does the same for the remaining teams etc. If a team ranked 9 to 13 chooses a team ranked 28 up to 32 it keeps its place in the brackets. If a team ranked 28 to 32 is chosen by a team ranked lower than 13 its place in the brackets will be the highest free place among the positions 9 to 13 pushing other teams to a lower place.

The other teams in the Swiss B play another Swiss of 5 rounds of 8 boards tomorrow. Swiss A in Los Espejos, Swiss B in Tenerife.

WOMEN and SENIORS

These teams continue their respective round robins today and finishing tomorrow. The first four in each group qualify for the quarter finals to be held Tuesday.

Seniors in Royale (10.30; 14.00; 17.00); Women group A in Imperial (starting times 10.00; 12.30; 15.30 and 18.00) Women group B in Minerva (10.30; 14.00; 17.00).

Message from the Appeal Committee

The players are reminded of regulation 10.2.4 of the Conditions of Contest (amending Law 73D):

If attention is first drawn to a player's breach of tempo by his screenmate, the Director may rule that up to that time the players on the other side of the screen were not conscious of such breach.

Players should not call the Director to draw attention to hesitations on their own side of the screen. Only when a hesitation is noticed on the other side of the screen, can it be considered Unauthorized Information. The Directors consider that the word "may" in the Conditions of Contest be interpreted as "will".

Third FISU Championships Tianjin 2006

From 21th till 27th of October 2006, FISU (International University Sport Federation) will organise the third World University Bridge Championships in Tianjin. Tianjin is a city of 10 million habitants and 120 km away from Beijing, the capital of China. These Championships are a competition between national countries: any country may enter maximum 2 national teams.

Countries have to register via their National University Sport Federation (NUSF). Several FISU-forms have to be signed and entered by the NUSF. Most of the NUSF will only send a team if a National University Bridge Championship has been organized. Please contact your NUSF to enter for these Championships.

You can ask for the patronage of FISU of your National University Bridge Championship by sending an email to Mister L. Briel, Director FISU World Championships at l.briel@fisunet.net. This will surely help your NUSF to send a team to these nice FISU Championships.

To obtain the cheapest flight tickets, the best is to book them at least 6 months in advance.

The hosting is in very nice rooms each with internet connection!

Pictures of the hosting and all latest information about this event will be made available at www.unibridge.org!

Championship Diary

In a major Championship fatigue can strike at any moment, to players and staff alike.

Ron Tacchi, having spent several days taking pictures in the Mixed Teams went to take some of the Mixed Pairs. He asked the director 'Which is the Open room - which is the Closed?'

When they were making the draw for the knock out stages of the Mixed Teams and they read out the names of the Erichsen team Alfredo Versace said, 'Three married couples - they won't last a day.'

This is an old story, but one worth repeating. Some years ago six British players were going to Ostend for the European Championships and five of them, Alan and Maureen Hiron, Boris and Helen Schapiro and Rixi Markus were already sitting in the carriage of the boat train. There were only a few minutes to go before the train was due to depart and Rixi was getting increasingly agitated at the absence of her partner, Fritz Gordon.

Spotting a porter she asked him, 'Have you seen my partner?'

The bemused official asked what she looked like.

'She's a vivacious blonde.' Rixi replied.

He looked up and down the platform and shook his head.

Boris Schapiro put his head out of the carriage and said 'Don't be ridiculous she's got a face like the back end of a horse.' (Or, as our regular readers will realise, words to that effect.)

'Ah' said the Porter, 'Here she comes now.'

The American Film Institute has announced the results of the contest to find the top 100 film quotes. The winner could easily appear in a bridge context, especially in a Mixed event. 'What happens if I lead a heart instead?' 'Frankly my dear I don't give a damn.' (Gone with the Wind)

Our favourite at 53 was 'One morning I shot an elephant in my pyjamas. How he got in my pyjamas I don't know.' (Animal Crackers)

When I asked Sabine Auken to guess the winner she said 'Beam me up, Scotty' but like Humphrey Bogart's 'Play it again, Sam' in Casablanca, it was never actually said.

On Friday's IBPA outing Tacchi noticed Maureen Hiron looking pensive. 'Lost anything?' he enquired. 'The will to live' she replied.

While looking for news about the Iberia strike at www.skynews.com I noticed a headline on the main page - 10 Tips for Cunning Card Players. Wow! However, when I followed the link it turned out to be about credit cards.

Under Starter's Orders

The first board of any major championship is always an exciting moment and I'm sure most players are hoping not to be put on the spot. This was what fate had in store for the players in the Open series when play got under way on Friday evening:

Board 1. Dealer North. None Vul.

♠ K 9 6 4		♠ 5
♥ 4		♥ A K 8
♦ A Q 5 2		♦ J 9 7 6
♣ 8 6 5 2		♣ A Q 10 7 4

♠ A J 10 3 2		♠ Q 8 7
♥ J 9 5 3		♥ Q 10 7 6 2
♦ 8 4		♦ K 10 3
♣ J 9		♣ K 3

	N

Well, it does not look too testing, does it? When Wolfarth - recent winners of the English Spring Foursomes - met the number one team from the Netherlands, Team Orange, the Anglo/Bulgarian side scored an effortless +120 in one room, making INT with an overtrick when South led a heart.

Let's move to the other room:

West	North	East	South
Bakkeren	Isporski	Bertens	Al-Shati

	Pass	I♣*	I♥
Dble*	Pass*	INT	All Pass

If you are familiar with the Rosenkrantz double you will know that North denied a heart honour or length in the suit with his second pass. That was enough for South to reject a heart lead in favour of the eight of spades. Declarer, taking a simple view, put up the ace of spades and tried the club finesse. When that lost the defence was deadly, North/South rapidly collecting one club, two spades and four diamonds for +50 and 5 IMPs.

South had passed his first test, but one could not say the same for declarer. Suppose he tries the jack of spades at trick one? North wins and switches to a diamond (nothing else is better.) The defenders can cash four tricks but what does North do next? A spade is out of the question, and if he plays a heart declarer wins, and simply plays a low club. If he plays a club instead declarer simply plays low. After South's overcall are we being unkind to suggest that this should not have been impossible for declarer to find - especially such a redoubtable one!

Casino Playa De Las Américas

Your hospitality bag includes an invitation for two people together with a complimentary cocktail. Bonne chance - and don't forget your passport is required!

Information is also provided on today's 10 Top Women Players, according to the EBL Master Points Scale; these are players who have achieved and continue to achieve important results in the Tournament World.

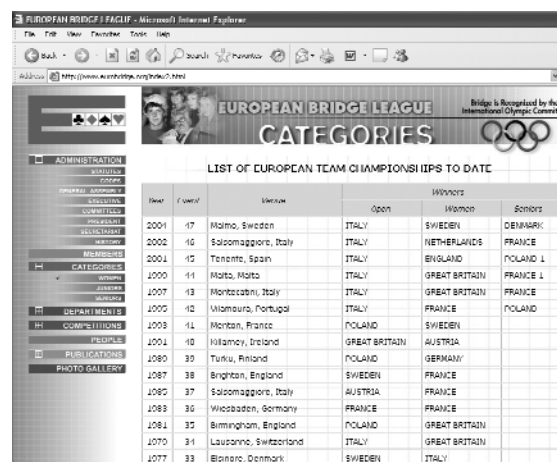

Their lives and positions in Bridge, their successes, their love and devotion to this marvellous sport, serve to show and teach us what it means to have been a GREAT CHAMPION in Bridge History.

All the Sections will be continuously updated.

OPEN TEAMS ROUND 4 - ÖZDIL v PONT

by Jos Jacobs

In Round 4 of the qualification, the standings in a number of groups already began to show some indications about who might qualify or not. In group D, the two teams of Özdil and Pont were both on 50 V.P. so a good win would bring either team very much nearer to qualification. Apart from that, this match also was an interesting transnational confrontation as the eight players represented at least five different nationalities.

The first board of the set was a push, but not quite one made of everyday stuff:

Board 11. Dealer North. None Vul.

	♠ A 10 5 3
	♥ 8
	♦ K 9 7 2
	♣ Q 5 4 2
♠ J 8 6		♠ K Q 7 4
♥ A K 10 2		♥ 5 4
♦ J 10 5		♦ A Q 8 4 3
♣ K 9 3		♣ A 8
	♠ 9 2
	♥ Q J 9 7 6 3
	♣ J 10 7 6

Open Room:

West	North	East	South
Özdil	Wasik	Ginossar	Knap

Closed Room:

West	North	East	South
Ventin	Holland	Lambardi	Bakhshi
Pass	Pass	Dble	All Pass

The same simple auction in both rooms. As the defence was easy enough (spade lead and a club ruff sooner or later) both declarers went four off for -800. Neither of them must have felt too happy with the match starting like this.

Nothing very much happened on the next four boards, but then the match livened up:

Juan Carlos Ventin, Spain

Board 16. Dealer West. E/W Vul.

	♠ 10 8 6
	♥ J 7
	♦ Q 6 5 3
	♣ K J 8 7
♠ A		♠ J 7 5 2
♥ K 5		♥ 10 9 6 4 3
♦ A J 9 8 2		♦ -
♣ A 10 5 4 2		♣ Q 9 6 3
	♠ K Q 9 4 3
	♥ A Q 8 2
	♦ K 10 7 4

Open Room:

West	North	East	South
Özdil	Wasik	Ginossar	Knap
1♦	Pass	1♥	1♠
2♣	2♠	Pass	3♦
Dble	3♠	Pass	Pass
4♣	Dble	All Pass

Wasik must have felt disappointed when seeing the dummy, but Özdil no doubt was quite happy. He won the spade lead and started crossruffing diamonds and spades, playing a heart through South in the process. ♠A, ♦ ruff, ♥A, ♥ to king, ♦A, ♦ ruff, ♠ ruff, ♦ ruff, ♠ ruff and the 13th diamond ensured a ninth trick for the ♣Q en passant. The ♣A was still there to make the game-going trick for a score of +710 to the Özdil team.

Closed Room:

West	North	East	South
Ventin	Holland	Lambardi	Bakhshi
1♦	Pass	1♥	1♠
2♣	2♠	Pass	Pass
3♣	Pass	Pass	3♠
All Pass

Ventin bid his hand a lot less enterprising than his Turkish counterpart. He sold out to 3♠ which duly went two down, for a loss of 12 IMPs.

On the next board, Ventin got his revenge when his enterprising bidding drove his opponents well overboard:

Board 17. Dealer North. None Vul.

	♠ 8 5 2
	♥ K J 9 7 6 3
	♦ K
	♣ 7 6 4
♠ A K Q J 7		♠ 4
♥ -		♥ 4
♦ Q 10 7 5 4		♦ A J 9 8 6 3 2
♣ Q 10 8		♣ J 9 5 3
	♠ 10 9 6 3
	♥ A Q 10 8 5 2
	♣ A K 2

Open Room:

West	North	East	South
Özdil	Wasik	Ginossar	Knap
	2♥	Pass	2♠
Dble	Pass	3♦	4♦
4♣	Pass	Pass	5♥
Pass	Pass	Dble	All Pass

With 2♠ South was asking specifically for a singleton somewhere, but North was not interested in showing his blank ♦K. As 4♠ would have been an easy make, the save for just one down after a defensive slip turned out to be a profitable one.

Closed Room:

West	North	East	South
Ventin	Holland	Lambardi	Bakhshi
	2♥	Pass	2NT
3♦	Pass	5♦	5♥
6♦	Pass	Pass	6♥
Dble	All Pass

Much more action in the Closed Room. On any lead but a club, 6♦ would have been made, but maybe South was hoping he might even make 6♥ himself. Not this time; the defenders duly collected their four tricks in the black suits for 500 and 10 IMPs back to Pont.

On the last board of the set, much depended on the first response over partner's 1♠ opening bid:

Board 20. Dealer West. All Vul.

	♥ Q J 7 4 3 2
	♦ Q 8 4 3
	♣ Q 9 5
♠ K Q 8 4 3		♠ A 10 9 6 5 2
♥ K 8 6		♥ A 10 9
♦ 9		♦ A 7 5 2
♣ A 10 8 7		♣ -
	♠ J 7
	♥ 5
	♦ K J 10 6
	♣ K J 6 4 3 2

Closed Room:

West	North	East	South
Ventin	Holland	Lambardi	Bakhshi
1♠	Pass	2NT	Pass
4♣	Pass	6♣	All Pass

2NT showed trump support, but after that neither West nor East showed any signs of inspiration, so the grand was missed.

Open Room:

West	North	East	South
Özdil	Wasik	Ginossar	Knap
1♠	Pass	4♣	Pass
4NT	Pass	5♣	Pass
6♥	Pass	7♠	All Pass

In the Open Room, both East and West did much better. First of all, East splintered which made it easy for West to launch Blackwood immediately. Next, Özdil found the neat bid of 6♥, checking third-round control of the suit. Ginossar realised that his partner's heart loser could go on the ♣A as well, so after just a little thought he jumped to the grand. Well done and 13 IMPs to them to make it 30-10, a 21-9 V.P. victory for Özdil. They had taken a big step forward towards qualification.

CLASIFICATORIO EQUIPOS

Ha empezado la prueba reina del campeonato: la competición por equipos. Hay un total de 81 equipos participando en la categoría Open, 21 en la categoría Damas y 18 en Seniors, jugando todos las mismas manos. En categoría Open se ha dividido el torneo en 11 grupos de entre 7 y 8 equipos, de los cuales se clasificarán para la siguiente fase los 4 primeros de cada grupo, con un ligero arrastre en función de su clasificación.

Una mano muy interesante ocurrió en la segunda ronda.

Dador Oeste. Este-Oeste vulnerables.

♠ K J ♥ 9 7 2 ♦ 5 4 3 2 ♣ K 10 6 2	♠ A Q 7 5 ♥ K 4 3 ♦ A Q J 10 ♣ 8 7	♠ 9 8 3 2 ♥ J 10 8 6 5 ♦ 7 ♣ J 9 4
---	---	---

En la mayoría de las mesas se jugó 3ST, pero la pareja holandesa Jansma-Verhees apostó más fuerte:

Dador Oeste. Nadie vulnerable.

Este	Jansma	Oeste	Verhees
Paso	2♣	Paso	1ST
Paso	2ST	Paso	2♠
Paso	3♥	Paso	3♦
Paso	4♦	Paso	3ST
Paso	4ST	Paso	4♥
Paso	6♦	Todos pasan	5♠

Después de preguntar por la distribución completa de Norte (por tanto conocida por ambos defensores antes de cartear) y preguntar por los Ases y la ♦Q, Jansma remató a 6♦.

A cartas vistas el slam se cumple, pero al declarante se le presentó una posición ambigua. Después de la salida del J♥, ganado con el ♥A, vino ♦Q, impasse a trébol perdido, triunfo que Este descarta un pic, ♥Q y pic desde el muerto. Gonzalo Goded, en Oeste, sirvió el ♠K amagando un semifallo y el declarante tiene un problema.

Si el ♠K es efectivamente un semifallo, la única opción de cumplir es que Este tenga exactamente un 5-3-1-4 y esté squeezeado a ♠-♣. Verhees adelantó el ♥K sobre el que Este rindió el ♥10 (su carta conocida) para seguir induciéndole hacia la línea equivocada. Con el ♣A y ♣ fallado con el ♦A y ♦ hacia el Rey se llegó a la siguiente posición:

♠ Q 7 5

♠ 10

El ♦9 era la carta que debería haber squeezeado a Este, pero eso tal vez ocurra en otra ocasión. El slam podía haberse cumplido si la contra no hubiera disfrazado sus cartas como hicieron. +50 y 11 IMPS para el equipo Goded.

Más tarde en el partido, otra mano que supuso un gran swing.

Dador Oeste. Todos vulnerables.

Este	Jansma	Oeste	Verhees
Paso	IST	Paso	1♠
Paso	4♣	Todos pasan	3♠

¿De qué sale usted con las siguientes cartas en Este después de esta subasta?

♠ 10 3
♥ Q J 7 5 3
♦ Q 9 2
♣ J 10 7

En la mayor parte de las mesas, después de parecidas subastas, Este escogió entre la ♥Q y la ♣J, no pudiendo evitar que el declarante ganara el contrato, ya que la mano completa era:

♠ 9 5 4 ♥ K 10 4 ♦ K 10 8 4 ♣ K 8 3	♠ A K Q J 6 2 ♥ A 9 6 ♦ 6 5 ♣ 9 4	♠ 10 3 ♥ Q J 7 5 3 ♦ Q 9 2 ♣ J 10 7

Sólo la salida de triunfo, como ocurrió en la mesa, impide al declarante cobrar un fallo a ♥ en la mesa. Al no poder optar por esa línea, el declarante arrastró 3 veces (Este descartando el ♥3, negativo al palo) y jugó el impasse de trébol. Si la defensa hubiera abierto el ♥, el declarante habría afirmado el trébol de la mesa.

Sin embargo, Goded Jr, ayudado por el descarte del compañero, volvió del ♦4, para la ♦Q de Este, cedida por el declarante. El ♦9 rubricó la multa. +100 y 12 IMPS más para el equipo Goded, que contribuyeron a su victoria por 24-6.

Veamos una mano correspondiente a la cuarta ronda, que enfrentaba al equipo español contra el ComputerLand polaco. Dicha mano pone en evidencia la ventaja de no doblar un contrato para no dar pistas sobre la colocación de los honores.

Dador Oeste. N-S vulnerables.

♠ K 2 ♥ Q 8 7 6 ♦ 10 5 3 ♣ Q J 8 2	♠ J 9 8 7 4 ♥ K J 10 9 3 2 ♦ 2 ♣ 7	♠ A 10 6 5 ♥ - ♦ Q J 8 7 ♣ K 10 9 6 4

En la sala abierta, la subasta fue:

G.Goded Starkowski	Sabaté	Olanski
2♥ (1)	Doblo (2)	4♥

Todos pasan

- (1) Bicolor 5-5 corazón y otro.
- (2) Negativo a corazón.

En la sala cerrada, en cambio:

Kwiecinski	F.Goded	Golebiowski	Jiménez
2♥ (1)	Doblo	4♥

Doblo Todos pasan

- (1) Débil a ♥

En la sala abierta la salida fue de la ♦Q, ganada en el muerto. ♠Q para el ♠K y trébol para el ♣A, pic del muerto para el ♠9 y el ♠10, y el ♣K fallado fueron las primeras bazas. El declarante siguió con ♥ hacia el A, impasse de ♥ y el ♠A, induciendo a Este a montar. Al jugar pequeña, el muerto descartó pero Este falló y arrastró, multando la mano.

Sin embargo, en la sala cerrada el declarante tiene la información del doblo final, por lo que se protegió contra el triunfo 4-0 (única razón que explica dicho doblo). La salida fue de trébol, para el ♣A. ♠ para el ♠10, trébol fallado, ♠ al ♠K y trébol fallado dejaron al declarante con los mismos triunfos que Oeste, pero no hay problema. Fede Goded jugó ♦ hacia el muerto y ♥ al 10 (sin avanzar el As). ♠J no cubierto fallado por Oeste deja la siguiente posición:

♠ - ♥ Q 8 ♦ 10 5 ♣ Q	♠ 9 8 ♥ K J 9 ♦ - ♣ -	♠ A ♥ - ♦ Q J 8 ♣

No hay vuelta que impida a Norte hacer el resto de las bazas. Por ejemplo, si arrastra se gana en la mano, se falla un pic con el ♥A y se vuelve a la mano, ya firme, fallando un diamante.

Al acabar las 4 primeras rondas, tanto el equipo Goded (F. Goded, F. Jiménez, G. Goded, L. Lantarón, J. Sabaté) como el equipo Pont (J. Pont, A. Wasik, A. Knap, J.C. Ventín, P. Lambardi, J. De Miguel) y el equipo Puig-Doria (A. Llopart, D. Brenner, F. Marimón, J. Creuheras, E. Puig-Doria) tienen opciones serias para clasificarse para la siguiente ronda.

The solution:

South leads a low spade to the ace, followed by a diamond ruffed with the ten.

West overruffs (best) and plays a trump. This is the position when the nine of spades is led:

	♠ J 2
	♦ 4 3
♠ 9		♠
♥ A K Q		♥
♦		♦ A K
♣		♣ A K
	♠ K 4

North plays the jack of spades and East is caught in an overtaking trump squeeze. If he discards a diamond declarer leaves he lead in dummy and ruffs a diamond. If he discards a club South wins with the king of spades and ruffs a club.

THE SIDE GAMES

The interest in playing an evening session for 'fun' in the side games is too low to continue. So we have decided to stop that event not only practically but also in the programme.
